as the church emerges from the impact of covid how will it reimagine its mission with all the disruption covid caused comes an opportunity for congregations how will the local church organize itself engage with the neighborhood and world and offer pastoral care to a planet dealing with the significant issues heightened during covid returning to old patterns of behavior is a wasted chance a theological opportunity for the church lies in rediscovering the classical aim of leisure the early church during the first two centuries offers us an understanding of leisure quite unique from the dominant expressions of leisure such as greek scholē roman otium and the jewish sabbath by exploring early christian practices we can find insights about leisure for mission today these practices include setting aside a single day of the week to worship sharing in a common meal open to all and following the meal incorporating into nonwork time care and engagement in the health and vitality of the community in the name of jesus christ the followers of jesus were consistent if extraordinary in meeting weekly on the lord's day to worship eat together and go out into the neighborhood to live out their faith why did the groom cross the road that was what eden whitney wondered when a tuxedo clad hunk hopped into her car and drove off with her instead of his intended but what did riley smith intend to do with her 1 pass her off as his new blushing bride 2 cart her off to his honeymoon resort and kiss her passionately in case anyone was watching 3 change her from a prim and proper librarian to his sultry real life wife eden's vote was for 3 now all she had to do was convince this once jilted groom to follow her lead this time straight down the aisle contemporary missions often include evangelistic and socio economic dimensions for effective missions some way of assessing what is being achieved is needed beyond just the common metrics touching on the spiritual and or economic which neglects social transformation that ideally should also be occurring this book seeks to identify key factors for holistic evaluation based on salient characteristics that emerged as three entrepreneurial church planting sites were studied in san francisco redeemer community church selma alabama blue jean church and lynch kentucky meridzo ministries what emerges from these case studies is the importance of relationality general emphasis on growth and development and a well established focus on holistic transformation the mechanisms for the operation of holistic transformation are spelled out to reflect the operation of the three actors of the trinity in missions the practical component of the book is the conceptual framework that reveals the operation of holistic transformation and ways to measure the dynamic relationships that occur
